

Session Plan -- Navon

Date: May 25, 2026 | Subject: Reading & Writing | Topic: Personal Challenge Essay

ADMIN ONLY -- NOT FOR STUDENT

COACHING REMINDERS (READ BEFORE SESSION)

- Learning accommodations: extra processing time, no rushing, one instruction at a time
- Chunk essay feedback: one paragraph at a time, never the whole essay at once
- Celebrate specifically: name the exact skill ('You wrote a topic sentence for every paragraph -- that is the hard part and you did it')
- If he gets stuck on a revision: ask 'What happened?' not 'What should you write?'
- Do not label errors -- redirect. 'What else happened in that part?' not 'This detail is missing.'

WARM-UP (0-10 MIN)

Context clue review (10 min): Give 3 fill-in-the-blank sentences. Student reads the full sentence, finds the clue words near the blank, then fills in the answer. Ask after each: 'What word nearby told you the answer?' This is Session 1 strategy -- keep it alive every Reading session.

REVIEW (10-20 MIN)

Planning sheet check (10 min): Ask Navon which challenge he chose. Have him read each of his 5 planning notes aloud. Celebrate showing up with it done. If a box is thin or blank, fill it in together before touching the essay -- feedback without a plan goes nowhere.

NEW CONTENT (20-40 MIN)

Essay coaching paragraph by paragraph (20 min): Read his essay together. For each paragraph: (1) identify the topic sentence together, (2) count the supporting details, (3) find the closing sentence. Use the bike-riding example from his planning sheet as the benchmark throughout. Coach on structure first -- word choice and grammar are secondary this session.

INDEPENDENT PRACTICE (40-50 MIN)

Targeted revision (10 min): Together pick the ONE paragraph that needs the most structural work. Student rewrites or expands it using the planning sheet. Observe -- wait at least 30 seconds before stepping in. Let him try first.

WRAP-UP (50-60 MIN)

Specific celebration (5 min): Name exactly one thing he did well and one thing that got stronger. Example: 'You have a topic sentence in every single paragraph. That is hard to do and you did it.' Preview: next Sunday we start something new. The essay is done -- that is a big deal.

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENT

None. This session closes out the essay assignment. Celebrate the completion.
